

Marked crosscountry skiing routes in La Clusaz

Massif de L'Étale 2400 m

SECTEUR ÉTALE

DESCENT ON OPEN ALPINE SKI SLOPES

Name	Distance	Elevation Gain	Start	Finish	Recommended Descent
Étale Route Difficult	4 KM	↗ 700 M	Parking des Joux	Le Belvédère	Régine Cavagnoud Les Joux
Total Alternative Difficult	4 KM	↗ 650 M	Parking Coverie	Le Belvédère	Régine Cavagnoud Grand Montagne Coverie

SECTEUR BEAUREGARD

DESCENT ON OPEN ALPINE SKI SLOPES

Name	Distance	Elevation Gain	Start	Finish	Recommended Descent
Beauregard Route Pretty Difficult	4,9 KM	↗ 612 M	Champ Giguët	Pointe de Beauregard	Guy Périllat
Matins Clairs Alternative Pretty Difficult	4,7 KM	↗ 592 M	Champ Giguët	Pointe de Beauregard	Guy Périllat
Bachal Alternative Pretty Difficult	4,2 KM	↗ 612 M	Champ Giguët	Pointe de Beauregard	Guy Périllat

In partnership with

Crosscountry skiing routes are open depending on snow conditions and only during the opening hours of the alpine ski slopes leading to the start point. Do not set off too late, and remember to come back down before the slopes close to avoid dangers related to grooming."

La Clusaz

Haute Savoie - France